Receiving the award for customer satisfaction is very important for us and a great recognition for our attempt to always provide a high quality product and excellent work to make our customers happy. Building bespoke homes from the very beginning of the design to handing over the keys for the fully fitted house is both a challenging and a rewarding exercise.

Houzz for us becomes increasingly more important, our clients and prospects generate their own Houzz idea books which represent important input for the design of the bespoke homes which are tailored to the requirements and tastes of our client, their budget and plots. We will carry the “Best of Houzz” award badges with pride.”
